

The Boys & Girls Club Gazette

October 21, 2009

Volume III, Issue 5

“All the news that we could think of”

Spongebob

By Marcus Howard
and Ryan Lafollette

When Spongebob was at work he heard a voice and it was a scary voice. And it sounded like this: BOOM BOOM THUMP THUMP RAAAWWR. So he went in the kitchen to see what it was and it was a lion! So Spongebob ran so fast the lion could not catch up to him. When Spongebob got home he called Patrick and said, “Patrick, run for your life!” Attention: Sorry your TV is messed up so find a different channel because this channel is messed up. Now good-bye.

Limes

By Trixy

Hey what are limes fruits or vegetables? Think about it. It's really very confusing if you ask me. Lime green just so happens to be my favorite color. What is your favorite color? So, back to limes. Do you eat limes? If you don't, you're crazy! I eat limes all the time they are so good. I eat limes for breakfast, lunch, and dinner! I love limes!

Dealing With Anger

By Kamari Bridges

What do you think makes a person powerful? Is a person powerful because he or she is strong? ...or because she or he bullies and teases others?...or because she or he yells louder than anyone else? Listen to what Oprah Winfrey has to say about being a powerful person:

“I think education is power. I think that being able to communicate with people is power.”

In other words, she believes that knowledge is power. The more we learn, the more powerful we are. She also believes that a person who has learned to talk respectfully with other people is powerful. Why? Because when we learn to talk we respectfully to others, we learn to work through our differences without hurtful words or hurtful actions. That's pretty powerful, don't you think?

Today, remember this: You can be a powerful person in the world. Just keep learning and treating others with respect.

With something to think about this is Kamari Bridges. Make it a great day or not. The choice is yours.

The Old Ladies

By: Eduardo DeVere

It was a cold October day and everything seemed to be normal. Almost everything...oh no not Marissa. “Oh yeah Tim, Bakugan is real! I saw it. It almost ate you, and that Bakugan did eat Michael Jackson and Elmo!” Tim being just a piece of string, just sat there. “Hah, Tim you are speechless!” Suddenly a moving truck parked next to Marissa's house. Three old ladies got out and the third old lady popped out of her hand a key floating in mid air. The first old lady smacked her on the back of the head for doing so. “Yah, see that Tim? It's the Bakugan who ate Elmo! Tim sat there. “I know who we can call!” cried Marissa. “Me?! ME?! Hah Hah HA- Cough Cough Cough, oh sorry it's the air.” Red the King of Kings said. “I blame the economy.” Marissa said, “Now will you help us defeat the bakugan ladies?” “Listen sister I ain't do nothing for nobody, except for the Spice Sisters.” “But if you don't” Red Exclaimed “What will happen to the last munchkin alive from the Wizard of Oz?” Marissa explained. “You're right besides he owes me five dollars.” Red said Suddenly...Hey people I'm pretty bored so to be continued, I guess.

Allen Iverson

By Ryan Lafollette and Marcus Howard

Do you happen to know who Allen Iverson is? Well, even if you do know who Allen Iverson is I am still going to tell you about him. Allen Iverson is a professional basketball player. He started his NBA career with the 76ers. In his rookie season he was NBA rookie of the year award for the best player on the team. Well, not necessarily the best player but he sure was the best rookie. But guess what? In the beginning of 2008, BOOM. Allen Iverson was traded. I can't believe that they traded the legendary Allen Iverson. And you will not believe what team he was traded to: The Pistons, the worst team in NBA history. But now He has been traded again! I don't want to tell you what team he is on now. Ok. I will tell you. The Grizzlies. I know I know, the best player going to the worst team. That is Allen Iverson. Okay, I am not even close to being done talking about this but I have homework to do. See ya!

By Zach Christman

actually ghosts that have turned into goody bags. Now here's the story: Little Billy Jones went to the grocery store to buy costumes and goody bags but he couldn't find a goody bag he liked. But then he saw the door that goes into the back. Then he saw a crate. He couldn't read well but he did know how to spell goody bags. So he opened up the crate and found a good goody bag. So little Billy took the goody bag home and checked out the goody bag. It had bat-like wings, a scary face. Then he found a booklet that said, "Warning: Cursed goody bags from the jungles of Africa, all that use it will be cursed for life." Little Billy didn't know what cursed meant but he did know that he needed a goody bag for Halloween tomorrow. The next night, Little Billy went trick-or-treating with his mom. Then, all of a sudden Billy's goody bag dropped and went into an empty alley. Billy found his goody bag behind a trash-can with a smile on its face. At eight thirty Billy's mom couldn't find Billy so she called the police. The next morning the police called Mrs. Jones and said that they found Billy's costume and his goody bag but not Billy.

Site of the Week!

By Kyler Poe

Kyler Poe, Emma Bobby, and all my friends in the site have voted the site Casual Collective site of the week. You can play really fun games like splitter 2, push, and the space game. And those are only some of them! Go now and don't disappoint me!

Funny Ghost Fable

By Griffin McNeil

It's time for a funny ghost fable. Okay, you all know that it's almost the best and scariest night of all time, Halloween. So I'm going to let you in on a secret. You know on Halloween when you see your little goody bag? You think it's so nice, sweet, and you trust it with your candy. Well, you are wrong to trust goody bag. They are

People

By Phoebe Rogers
and Chase Krischano

People are awesome and sometimes kind or mean. For example, Ali is nice and sweet. Some people play sports like soccer, baseball, football, softball, tennis, volleyball, lacrosse or hockey. People play video games like Nintendo DS, Funbrain, Agame, Gamesgames and Nickelodeon. People like holidays. People go to school, eat, sleep, play, run, walk, dance and sing. What do you do?

Halloween Night

By Sabrina Cameli

On Halloween night, you think you get candy, but at the creepy old house on Ghost St. in Haunting, Indiana, all you get is haunts and scares. No candy! I heard that if you go there you won't come back ALIVE! I heard of a girl that went there to go trick or treating last year, but never came back. So then I thought of going there myself for a look, but then I heard it was torn down last night. So my hopes were torn into pieces like the haunted house I'm talking about. But I still want to see it, but I can't. So I think this story was useless to tell you if the ending isn't as exciting as the beginning. But it was fun to tell you anyway. I thought of an ending of the haunted house story to write, but I am too lazy to write it. So don't come running to me if you have an ending or if you're asking me what the ending is. Just leave me be!

Salina

By Jordan Cameli and Zach Christman

Salina has worked here for...hold on a minute while I wait for Zach to get the notes. Ok. Here we go. Salina has worked here for two years. She went to BF (hey, that's where I go!) and Portage High School. If she could have any position in the club it would be the art room. Her favorite movie is "The Wedding Singer" and her favorite website is perezhilton.com. The job that she worked for before the club was the MV. She is dressing as a pirate this year for Halloween. To finish this up (because I don't want to hog the whole newspaper) Salina's favorite celebrity is Adam Sandler. If she had any job in the world, she would have a TV show traveling the whole world interviewing people. I wish I had that job!